VETERANS' RESOURCE GUIDE

ASSISTANCE FOR VETERANS AND THEIR FAMILIES

Serving the Service Members, Veterans, and Families of Dallas and North Texas

Metrocare
Behavioral Healthcare for Children & Adults

OUR MISSION

The Military Veteran Peer Network (MVPN), is a network of Services Members, Veterans, and their Families (SMVF), dedicated to establishing camaraderie, trust, and hope with one another, identifying and vetting community resources, and collectively contributing to the communities where they live.

WHO THIS GUIDE IS FOR:

Whenever you are faced with a problem, referral information is a good starting point on who can help.

This guide is for our Texas Military Service Members, Veterans, and their Families (SMVF). If you are an SMVF and you:

- Want to connect with other SMVF either in peer groups or via social/community gatherings.
- Find that you are still facing the challenge of transition.
- Are looking for a new purpose/volunteer opportunities.
- Want to learn non-destructive coping skills.
- Want to learn more about Post-Traumatic Stress (PTS), Military Sexual Trauma (MST), Moral Injury (MI), Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI).
- Want to find out more information about Veterans Treatment Courts (VTC) in your area.
- Are interested in learning more about helpful methods or programs for Mental Health injuries incurred as a result of military service.
- Would like to join a peer group or learn to become a facilitator.
- Want to help other Service Members, Veterans or Family members learn to deal with struggles in their lives.
- Want to find out what services are offered for SMVF within your local community services providers.
- Want to help recently incarcerated or Justice Involved Veterans (JIV) with adjusting back to civilian life.
- Want to find out more information on how to obtain or even learn to facilitate suicide awareness/prevention classes to the SMVF communities.
- Learn how to be or continue to be a leader and mentor for your Veterans and family members.

DALLAS COUNTY MVPN AT METROCARE SERVICES

MVPN provides support services for Dallas County veterans and families through Metrocare, the largest provider of mental health and developmental disability services in North Texas. As a part of the Veterans Mental Health Department (VMHD) at the Texas Veterans Commission (TVC), MVPN staff are trained and certified by the TVC to provide training and share our experiences and recovery stories with all Texas SMVFs that we meet. This is to inspire hope that any SMVF can also overcome any related trauma, addictions, anger management issues or incarceration that may arise, by providing mentors or community organization referrals that can help. We also promote housing stability for low-income veteran families as well as case management and financial assistance.

Service Details: Peer to peer services and referrals to transitional and permanent housing, financial assistance, case management, employment, Justice Involved services, community-based education services including suicide awareness and Military Cultural Competency.
